FOREIGN NEWS! Dates to January 10.

By the favor of Capt. Swift of the clipper ship Arrosy, which touched at this port on Sunday last, on her way to India, we are in possession of San Francisco dailies from January 5 to 10, containing "If we are overcome give us political alliance and war news from New York to January 9.

The bark Whistler and schooner Sea Nymph had both arrived over, with long passages. The date of arrival is not given in the papers at hand, but their passages must have been about 22 to 24 days each.

Gold in New York Jan. 6 was 227 @ 228. The following embraces the most important items received by telegraph:

From Sherman. New York, Jan. 4 - The World's Beaufort, S. C., correspondent of the 28th, says: Increasing preparations are making in Sherman's army to resume the offensive. The enemy evidently expect an attack on Charleston and Branchville.

Refugees say that Charleston is being surrounded by formidable earthworks. A portion of Dahlgren's fleet is engaged in removing the obstructions from the Savannah River, some of which were formidable. A spacious channel has been made for vessels plying between Hilton Head and Savannah.

Foster's army is still at Broad River Landing, covering the Charleston and Savannah Railroad. It is now said that Hardee's army passed over that road to Charleston. We have had many visitors from army. Savannah. The citizens speak well of Sherman's

Gen. Morey has issued orders dividing Savannah into two military districts-for the protection of publie and private property; registering persons formerly in the rebel army; concerning arrests; continuing the fire department, water and gas works; for the arrest of straggling soldiers; for the transportation of persons within rebel lines who want to go; and to supply destitute persons with food.

Sherman, in special field orders, states that as Savannah is and will be held as a military post for future military uses, it is prover to lay down certain general principles, that all may understand their duties and obligations. He then proceeds to state what may be permitted for the convenience and comfort of the people, in which are embraced all necessary privileges of large communities. The publication of newspapers is limited to two editors, to be held to strict accountability for libels, mischievous any comments whatever on the acts of the authorities.

The Savannah Republican, of the 29th, contains the proceedings of a public meeting called by the Mayor and a large number of influential citizens, to take into consideration matters relating to the p esent and future wel are of the city, and resolutions were sent that General Grey be continued as Military Commander of this post, and that for his urbanity and kindness he is entitled to our thanks. Latest from Sherman.

Washington, Jan. 8 .- The reports of Sherman having crossed the river are confirmed. He is believed to be moving on Grahamsville.

New York. Jan 8 .- The Times' special says: "It is rumored that Sherman has communicated to the President that the Georgia State authorities have applied to come back into the Union, and that Secretary Stanton's visit to Savannah is doubtless in connection with this subject."

New York, Jan. 7 .- The Charleston Mercury of the Sist uit, says: Sherman has reinforced Foster for an expedition against the Charleston and Savannah Railroad. The Augusta Register of the 1st confirms the report, saying that Foster's batteries had been increased. The Richmond Dispatch of the 4th says it will not be surprised at any moment to learn that Sherman is the former ought to be The Herald's Washington correspondent says it is rumored that Lee had been placed in command of all the rebel armies, and had put Beauregard in command of the defences of Richmond, intending himself to proceed to South Carolina and concentrate the rebel forces in that quarter, to check Sherman's proposed movement northward. Sherman's movement was considered by Lee as of more importance than any that Grant can make upon Richmond in five months.

A Washington letter says the entire lot of cotton captured at Savannah will be shipped to England, the claims of the English owners to be examined and judged upon by Mr. Draper, the Government agent at Savannah, and Savannah will immediately be opened as a po t of entry. The same letter says the rebels are preparing to detach a force from Lee's army to operate against Sherman, on the supposition | Milledgeville he has changed his policy. In that that Grant can be held in check by a small force for

New York, Jan. 4 -The supply ship Massachusetts arrived last evening at Philadelphia, from Charleston bar the 80th. She represent the fleet of ironclads had reached Charleston harbor, and were to co-operate with General Sherman in an attack on anything he had ever seen."

It is reported that Hardee had been brought to a stand, and would probably be obliged to surrender. New York, Jan. 8 .- The new Governor (Magrath) of South Carolina has issued a proclamation calling on all free white men between the ages of sixteen and sixty, to come to the defence of Charleston, will-

The Richmond Enquirer suggests the hanging of certain merchants of Wilmington, who refused to take Confederate money while our (Federal) fleet was before that city. By the Columbia South Carolinian, it appears that a number of Union prisoners who had agreed to join the rebel army to escape the rebel prisons, had been discovered in a plot to escape to Sherman's lines. Several were shot, and the remainder sent to prison.

the Roancke River expedition. The gunboats Otsego which have been subverted or overthrown by the and Birsly were sunk by torpedoes. The river was found full of them, and seventy-five were picked up in a distance of twenty-five miles. Sometimes eight or nine were found stretched across the river in a single line. The fleet proceeded to Poplar Point, where they found the batteries too strong to be taken without a co-operating land force. On the return the boats were somewhat annoyed by sharp-them from the table. The Wilmington correspondent of the Richmond Disputch says "our (the Federal) forces, at one time, were between Fort Fisher and Wilmington, cutting off communication both by land and water. and if they had not been dislodged soon, Fort Fisher would have fallen as Fort Morgan did, and with its fall the fate of Wilmington would have been sealed."

The Raleigh Progress says of the Roaneke affair, in which the rebeis at first claimed so great a victory, that it didn't amount to much, no one being killed or seriously wounded on either side.

NEW YORK, Jan 9 .- The Wilmington Journal says Bragg has written a letter breathing a spirit of Christian hope. He says there is no cause for alarm. There is no enemy between Wilmington and Fort Fisher. With the present torce he will be able to resist any further attempt on Wilmington, and closes asking the prayers of Christians for himself and

The Fort Fisher Fiasco.

New York, Jan. 7th -The Tribune's Norfolk correspondent says of the Wilmington expedition: The transports were off Fort Fisher three days before the war ships arrived, in good weather, and the enemy were known to be in full force. Their coal was exhausted and they had to return to Beaufort, leaving again as soon as possible, and that, without waiting for their return, as agreed. He then advised a withdrawal, to which Butler assented.

From Tennessee.

New York, Jan. 6 .- The Times has a special, dated Huntsville, Ala, which says the Tennessee campaign is ended. The last of Hood's army crossed matter, premature news, exaggerated statements, or | the Tennessee river on the 29th, with eight pieces of artillery and about eight thousand men. He left Macon with thirty-five thousand was reinforced by five thousand and had a hundred and ten pieces of artillery. After the battle of Nashville, both armies floundered in the mud for ten days. Hood and the remnant of his infantry crawled off at night, his adopted: cavalry stubbornly resisting the pursuit during the First-That we accept our position and the surthe river, at least thirty guns. He abandoned large numbers of wagons and ambulances. Our official list of prisoners numbers nine thousand seven hundred, not including five hundred captured from Roddy on the 27th. Over nine hundred deserters have also reported. It is said Hood is going to Meridian, Miss., to attempt reorganization. The chase in force has been abandoned, although Steadman is across the river, with orders to harass him and capture as much as possible. A new campaign is already projected, and the corps of Wood, Smith, and Schofield

From Rebeldom.

New York, Jan. 4 .- The following is the concluding paragraph of a long editorial in the Richmond Sentinel, Jeff Davis' organ : " If France and England will enter into a treaty with these Confederate States, recognizing our nationality, and guaranteeing our independence on the abolition of slavery in all these States, rather than continue the war, we should be prepared to urge the measure on our readers. We think such a proposition would be favorably received and acted upon by those nations, and it ought to be made to them."

New York, Jan. 4 .- A special dispatch from Washington says advices from Richmond are of such a tenor as to induce belief among certain officials that the rebel Congress has already, in secret session, passed a bill giving Jeff. Davis or General Lee authority to call or order for detail not less than fifty thousand slaves for service in the army as soldiers. The Richmond Sentinel says the North is becoming bankrupt, by which the South is sure to gain its

Late rebel papers show that a fight of the Jeff. Davis and anti-Jeff. Davis factions is constantly growing more sanguinary. Those opposed to Davis accuse him, in the most open and vehement manner, of being the cause of all their recent disasters. They, in turn, are charged by Jeff's organs with destroying confidence in the ability of the Confederacy to achieve its independence, and preventing the full enforcement of the Conscription Act and encouraging

From Sheridan.

NEW YORK, Jan 2 .- News from Sheridan's headquarters confirm the report that Early has withdrawn many portions of his forces far up the Shenandoah Valley, and fallen back with his infantry to Waynesboro His cavalry, however, are operating further down, on both sides of the Blue Ridge.

Miscellaneous.

New York, Jan. 9 -The Commercial's Washington special dispatch says that Horace Greeley is here, urgent and persistent in his demand for peace, predicating a speedy termination of the war.

The Richmond Whig of the 6th Jan. says that large numbers of rebel deserters and lawless men are roaming over the upper counties of Georgia, committing depredations on the inhabitants. The Richmond Dispatch says that since Sherman left town and at Atlanta, he was all harshness and bru tality; at Savannah he has been all conciliation. The Dispatch forgets that Sherman announced his
